“Winemaker Mike Macmorran commented that the biggest challenge with Viognier in 2015 was dealing with sun damage on the grapes. They’ve certainly done a great job though and the 2015 Viognier should easily be an outstanding wine. Seeing partial malolactic, it has a classic feel in its ripe peach, citrus blossom and tropical fruit profile. Medium-bodied, rich, textured and beautifully pure, drink it on release and over the following couple of years.”
